The ManuMax

ManuMax Examination

Maximum comfort for maximum well being

The Enraf-Nonius ManuMax is a series of new generation treatment couches. These high quality, professional couches are developed by our experts to set a new standard in physiotherapy.

The most stable treatment table

The sturdy frame is designed to create the most stable treatment surface. All ManuMax tables have a safe working load of 250 kilograms. The standard electrical all-around operation (high/low) adds to the user friendliness of ManuMax. The soft-landing wheel system and the digital lock are standard with this new generation treatment tables. Never was a treatment table so comfortable for patient and therapist.

The frames of the ManuMax couches are available in two different shades of grey. The upholstery of the highest quality has been chosen with care and executed in colours that always match in every practice and treatment room. The perfect treatment table fitting in your own style.

ManuMax Examination

With its smart, modern design, the ManuMax is an alluring asset for every practice

Examination line

The Examination line has an extra long back section, ideal for examination and basic treatments.

There is no need for your patient to turn around in order to change from a lying to a sitting position.
